

Darcie Daugherty has taught at Chokio-Alberta for 25 years. She has a degree in Special Education with licenses in Learning Disabilities, Emotional and Behavioral Disorders, Developmental Cognitive Disabilities, and Autism Spectrum Disorders. She worked in the Resource Room for 20 years and is currently in her 5th year as a teacher in the ADSIS program which includes reading, math, and behavior. She lives on a farm south of Alberta with her husband, Erik. They have 3 sons, 1 dog, and many cats! In her free time she likes to read, cook, and spend time with friends and family.